Reciprocity for CHWs Certified in Other States

Certified CHWs from other states who move and/or work in Maine can apply for Maine Community Health Worker Certification without completing additional core competency training. They need to prove that their certification has equivalent standards to Maine CHW Certification, particularly aligning with competencies from the C3 Project. Their other state certification must be current within the last two years.

For Reciprocity Applications, the CHW must

- Submit proof of certification or completion of Maine CHW certification assessment based on C3 roles and skills
- Attest to the Maine CHW Code of Ethics
- Pay the Reciprocity Application fee of $100
